Mrs. R. A. Allgood of Fayetteville, N. C., is on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Earle, of Pickens.

Mrs. C. J. Valley and little daughter Margaret, of Greenville, are visiting Dr. J. L. Valley and family in Pickens.

Findley & Stansell have sold their stock of goods to L. Frank Smith, formerly of Cross Roads section, but now of Greenville.

Frank Christopher and family, who have lived many years in Pickens, left Wednesday for Liberty, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Loehr, after spending Christmas with her parents here, have gone to Newport, Tenn., where he will be engaged in business.

W. F. Haynes of Liberty route 3 was in Pickens on business Monday. He reports the health of his wife as improving. She recently underwent a serious operation at the Greenville hospital.

Presiding Elder M. L. Carlisle will be in Pickens Sunday for the quarterly conference of the Methodist church and will preach here Sunday night. This will be his first visit here as presiding elder.

Among the visitors here last week was Hon. L. J. Williams of North Augusta. Mr. Williams is a nephew of Ex-Gov. John C. Sheppard and he himself has been prominent in political circles.

On the last Sunday in the old year Miss Eudora Ramsay, the talented daughter of Dr. D. M. Ramsay, delivered an address of great power and beauty on the subject of Woman's Place in the Kingdom, in the Pickens Baptist church.

Will H. Harris, son of T. D. Harris of Pickens, was happily married to Miss King of Jacksonville, Fla., last week. They are now living in Greenville, where Mr. Harris has charge of the office of the Bradstreet Co. They have the congratulations of many friends.

The Pickens railroad will sell round-trip tickets at reduced rates next Saturday for the benefit of those who wish to attend the big auction sale at Easley. The last train will also be held at Easley until the sale is over. Read the advertisement about this sale in this paper.

Dr. George Cureton, of Lusk, Wyo., is on a visit to his mother in Pickens. Mr. Cureton went to the West several years ago to engage in the drug business and has met with much success. Besides being one of the most prominent druggists in his section he is mayor of his town. His many friends here are glad to see him.

The friends of Miss Floride Carey will be pleased to learn that she has returned from a Greenville hospital much improved in health. She underwent an operation for throat trouble about two weeks ago and was forced to remain in the hospital about ten days. Miss Stella Porter will teach Miss Carey's school in Anderson county until she is able to return.

Married by Rev. D. W. Hlott at the home of the bride on December 28 in the Cross Roads community, Mr. John F. Bagwell of Greenville and Miss Jennie May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Julian. The young couple will make their home in Greenville where Mr. Bagwell has his office as assistant district manager of the Virginia Life Insurance Company.

Misses Ora McFall and Vesta Ashmore spent the Christmas holidays in Atlanta.

The Baraca-Philathea banquet Friday night was largely attended and a success in every respect.

Rev. B. E. Grandy and son Lloyd spent a few days with homefolks in Pickens during Christmas.

Miss Eva Christopher spent several days last week with relatives and friends in the Needmore section.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church held its first meeting of the new year with Mrs. R. L. Hames.

Our good friend Mr. Ervin Miller has moved to Pickens from Easley. We bid him and family a hearty welcome.

J. E. Gillespie, of route 2, who was in town recently, tells us he saw the first copy of The Sentinel ever printed come from the press. Messrs. Bradley and Holcombe were editors and proprietors and it was forty-five years ago.

Pauline, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Mauldin, died Thursday night, after an illness of several months and was buried Saturday at the Pickens cemetery after funeral services conducted by Rev. J. E. Foster. The bereaved family have the sympathy of a host of friends in their sad hour.

The Christmas tree at the Baptist church on Monday night December 27, was a great success. Prof. R. T. Hallum was master of ceremonies and Miss Nellie Grandy had charge of the management of the children. The songs and recitations showed careful training. Many presents were on the tree for the children.

J. H. S. Price, former substantial citizen of Pickens county and now prominent citizen of Oconee, near Seneca, was in Pickens on business last week. Mr. Price says he likes his adopted home well, but Pickens still seems like home to him. He has as neighbors B. D. Mauldin and Clayt Mauldin, two former Pickensites.

John H. Cheatham, who has been manager of the Easley cotton mill for several years, has resigned that position and has been succeeded by Walter H. Geer of Hartwell, Ga. We understand that Mr. Cheatham and Mr. Rice, who has been superintendent of the Easley mill at Liberty, have bought a controlling interest in the Hartwell, Ga., mill, and Mr. Cheatham will be president of that mill.

B. Lewis has taken charge of the Mountain View hotel at Easley and moved his family from Pickens to their new home last week. Mr. Lewis and family for a long time have made Pickens their home and the people here were loath to give them up, however they take with them the best wishes of many friends. The new proprietor of the Mountain View will make an ideal hotel man, having for many years himself been a traveling salesman. A. D. Steadman and family, who have had charge of the hotel at Easley for several years have gone to York, where they will also conduct a hotel.

WAGON AND BUGGY TALK

Wagons

We are showing a complete line of the old reliable "Studebaker," and the name STUDEBAKER has always stood for the best in wagon building. Prices and terms most reasonable.

We also have a warehouse full of the original George E. Nissen Co. Wagons in all sizes, fully equipped with brakes and ratchet, and considering quality and price this wagon has no equal. We also have several other makes of cheaper wagons, such as Bagwell and Hickory. It will pay you to come here for your wagon, for you are not confined to one brand, but you have several brands of the leading standard wagons to select from and our prices and terms will be very interesting to you.

Buggies

When it comes to Buggies, the Tyson & Jones has no equal. It is not the cheapest in price, but you can ride more miles for $1. in a Tyson & Jones Buggy than you can in the cheaper makes. The Rock Hill is our old standby, and there is none better for the money. Ask for them. Big line to select from. When your mind turns to vehicles come to the Big Store, for we can please you in quality, terms and price.
